

Everything You Wanted to Ask About PIPL and Its Impact on HK but Were Afraid to Ask

An Overview and Update on the PRC Personal Information Protection Law

29 April 2022 (Fri) 5:00pm – 6:30pm

About the Webinar

The PRC PIPL that took effect since 1 November 2021 continues to develop with its coverage and application further clarified by the relevant authorities. Given its broad scope and extraterritorial application, it is important for corporations and individuals to understand its impact and how to comply.

The webinar will cover the following issues on the PIPL and its impact on HK:

- Constitutional & Legal Bases
- Core values of PI privacy right
- Unique & new features
- Who must comply and why
- What the provisions are about
- How to get them right
- How it hurts
- How it differs from others
- Data Protection & Digital Monopoly
- Sanctions and remedies
- Updates

Who should attend

- Data users and processors
- Banks and Financial Institutions (including Money Service Operators)
- Accountants (particularly those with PRC clients)
- Company Secretaries
- In House Counsel
- Small and Medium Sized law firms

Speakers

Dominic WAI

Partner, ONC Lawyers

Before joining the legal profession, Dominic Wai has worked in the banking sector and as well as in the Independent Commission Against Corruption (ICAC).

Dominic's practice focuses on advising clients on matters relating to anti-corruption, white-collar crime, law enforcement, regulatory and compliance matters in Hong Kong, including advice on anti-money laundering. He also handles cases involving corporate litigation, shareholders' disputes and insolvency matters, defamation cases, domestic and international arbitration cases, cybersecurity, data security and privacy law issues, competition law matters, e-discovery and forensic investigation issues as well as property litigation. His clients include Hong Kong listed companies, international companies, liquidators and a broadcasting company.

Stephen WONG

Barrister-at-law

Stephen graduated from HKU and subsequently went to LSE for his LLM in IP, Civil Litigation and Maritime Laws. He joined the then Attorney General's Chambers as a Crown Counsel in 1986, later as Assistant Director of Public Prosecutors and left as Deputy Solicitor-General, having been responsible for criminal appeals, human rights, Basic Law, cross-boundary legal issues (the "2 legal systems" in "1 country", reciprocal recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards and court commercial and civil judgments in particular) and law reforms. Completing his 5-year term as Privacy Commissioner in 2020, he has started his private practice in civil and criminal laws, including Commercial, Trust, Law & Technology, Data Governance, AML and white-collar crimes. He is also the editor of 2 data law books published by City U Press.

Registration Method

Please click here or scan the QR code to fill in online form.

-  By Zoom (link to join the webinar online will be sent to the successful registrants)
-  Free
-  English
-  Law Society CPD point is being applied for (Attendance Certificate will be provided upon request)

2107 0301

event@onc.hk

www.onc.hk

ONC Lawyers